

Biography for Debra Em Wilson

Debra Em Wilson, sought after keynote speaker is known for her humor, wisdom, and practical solutions to behavior and learning challenges. Debra has an uncanny ability to provide inspirational training melding the best of research and techniques from a variety of fields including occupational therapy, behavioral optometry, mind-body science, psychology, and brain research. Having taught at college, high school, and primary levels, Debra brings a broad range of personal stories and practical solutions to her presentations. As a teacher and Site Literacy Coach for eighteen years, she successfully implemented S'cool Moves showing dramatic gains in reading and self-regulation for her students. Ms. Wilson is a celebrated teacher, author of four books, and educational consultant.

Debra holds a Masters Degree in Education with a clinical reading option from Fresno State University. Her teaching credentials include Biology, Physical Education, Multiple Subjects, English Learner, and Reading and Language Arts Specialists. She is Brain Gym certified, learning from experienced mentors in the field of neurophysiology and educational kinesiology.

Debra provides hands-on, research-based training in schools and early childhood programs throughout the United States. Her daughter's personal struggle with Russell-Silver Syndrome, Expressive Language Disorder, mild Cerebral Palsy, Sensory Processing Disorder, and reading challenges has deepened her work and provided insight into the hearts and minds of children with special needs. Over 500 United States and international schools enrich their curricula with S'cool Moves. Success travels fast through word of mouth with hundreds of endorsements received since its inception.

